

Mennonite Heritage Center
565 Yoder Rd, Harleysville, PA 19438
mhpc.org; phone: 215-256-3020

The mission of the Mennonite Historians of Eastern Pennsylvania is to collect, preserve, and interpret the Anabaptist-Mennonite heritage in order to educate, inspire, and witness to the church and broader community.

Adopted MHEP Board of Trustees/Staff 06/2006

Discover the people, stories and events that connect one generation to another at the Mennonite Heritage Center. We encourage your congregation's involvement and support and invite you to:

Bring your Sunday School group, youth groups or membership classes to the MHC to learn about the Anabaptists emigrating to Pennsylvania and the congregations and communities that they built. A special exhibit, Opportunity & Conscience: Mennonite Immigration to Pennsylvania, is opening in April 2017.

Enjoy researching your family genealogy and your congregational history in the MHC historical library.

Join in hymn sings, programs and workshops.

Volunteer in the museum and help with special events like the Apple Butter Frolic and the Whack & Roll Croquet Tournament.

Board Members:

Christopher J. Detweiler, President, (Church of the Holy Spirit), John L. Ruth, Vice President (Salford Mennonite), J. Oliver Gingrich, Secretary (Plains Mennonite), Natasha J. Alderfer (Falconia Mennonite), Treasurer, Kathy Q. Bauman (Butter Valley Community), Gerald Benner (Ambler Mennonite), Jeffrey L. Godshall (Franconia Mennonite), Jeff Hackman (Plains Mennonite), S. Duane Kauffman (Perkasie Mennonite), Andrew S. Lapp (Line Lexington Mennonite), Edie Landis (Zion Mennonite), Donald L. Nice (Deep Run East Mennonite)

Staff:

Joel Alderfer, Collections Manager, Ivan Derstine, Custodian, Steve Diehl, Director of Advancement, Sarah Heffner, Director, Timothy Kennel, Volunteer Coordinator, Forrest Moyer, Archivist, Rose Moyer, Assistant Director